PRAYER

Reverend Michael Wilker, Lutheran Church of the Reformation, Washington, D.C., offered the following prayer:

O God, infinite goodness, joy of angels, blessed friend, life of all lives: With Dr. Teresa of Avila, we praise You for the fire of Your love that encircles creation, inspires our hearts, and enlightens our minds. When our intentions diverge from Yours and we are breaking, You comfort us, suffer us, and patiently bear us as we are. When we have returned to Your paths, You forgive how we have offended.

Here in this House, and across this land, from the homes of the Piscataway to the Mississippi River, to the mountains and deserts of the West, send Your spirit to guide us. You have no body but ours. You pray in us, work in us, look through our eyes, speak through our words, work through our hands, walk with our feet, and love with our hearts. Help us serve with justice, rooted in the Earth, and in humility.

Amen.

SPEECH OF

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 12, 2021

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, against the backdrop of President Biden's demand that Congress immediately pass an unprecedented $3.5 trillion tax and spend budget package that constitutes the largest tax hike since 1968 and massive new unsustainable debt, the House votes today to extend the debt ceiling until December 3rd.

I will vote no.

One analysis shows that Biden's budget—championed by Senator BERNIE SANDERS—could cost up to $5.5 trillion after accounting for several budget gimmicks that artificially lower the price tag.

Despite the fact that approximately $1.3 trillion of previously appropriated COVID funds remain either unobligated (about $800 billion) or obligated but unspent (about $500 billion)—sitting idle in the government coffers—the Biden administration is demanding more power to borrow.

There has also been a serious lack of transparency as to how COVID funds are spent.

In a July report, the Government Accountability Office (GAO)—the federal government's "watchdog agency"—recommended "that Health and Human Services (HHS) improve transparency over tens of billions of dollars in unspent relief funds."

The GAO also recommended that "the Office of Management and Budget and Department of Treasury issue timely guidance for audits of hundreds of billions in state and local COVID relief funds."

Nothing but political will—and a genuine commitment to responsible governance and spending within our means—precludes redirecting some or all of the $1.3 trillion unobligated and unspent COVID funds to mitigate the debt, instead of new borrowing.

There was a time when then-Senator Biden was concerned with the detrimental impact of debt on the economy and on those—our children and grandchildren—who will someday pay a huge price for today's profligate government spending and the borrowing needed to sustain it.

In a Senate speech in 2004, then-Senator Biden opposed raising the debt ceiling and condemned the "threat of massive deficits" and said, "the bill for our decisions will be sent to our children and grandchildren, in the form of the additional debt we authorize today."

In 2006, Biden said: "... I am voting against the debt limit increase ... the tsunami of debt created by the policies of this administration (George W. Bush) has to go somewhere ... But as the rest of the world copes with the waves of U.S. debt, we are now all in the same leaky boat. There is just so much of our debt other nations want to hold ... We need both more awareness, and more understanding, of this fundamental threat to our economic well being and the global economy."

Today, with our national debt far worse than ever—it was $8.5 trillion in 2006, today it's $28.4 trillion—the President ought to heed his own words.

HONORING MS. SARAH YOUNG
GLACKIN

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and thank Sarah Young Glackin on her long and distinguished career as a member of staff on the House Appropriations Committee as she prepares to leave us for new endeavors.

Myself and my fellow colleagues—on both sides of the aisle—have relied extensively on Sarah's expertise in many appropriations matters, most notably in the areas of defense and military construction.

Sarah's career began on the Subcommittee on Defense, with a portfolio that included Tricare and Defense Health Programs.

Four years later, she moved to the Subcommittee on Military Quality of Life and then Subcommittee on Interior and Environment. She soon returned to Defense, where she worked on Counterdrug and Narcotics, Missile Defense, Defense Health Programs, Military Medical Research, and TRICARE. For the last decade, Sarah has served on the Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies.

She was responsible for military construction across all components and services, the improvement of housing for our servicemembers and their Families, and the NATO security investment program. Oftentimes congressional staffers are not appropriately recognized for their service. However, they are the Americans from all over our nation that represent the fabric of our country. Sarah has served in more ways than one.

Madam Speaker, Sarah has been an institution on the Appropriations Committee since the moment I arrived there. My Colleagues and myself will miss her dedication, her patience, and her deep reservoir of knowledge. I want to wish Sarah all the best as she pursues new adventures.

"Jon G" and Kelly Kirkman, the proprietors of Jon G's Barbecue in Peachland, North Carolina. After only a year in business, Jon G's has already become a local institution, as evidenced by the consistently long line of customers who are ready to enjoy good barbecue. For the Kirkmans, barbecue is truly a labor of love and the establishment of their restaurant took many years of hard work and experimentation.

Small business owners have been ravaged by the government response to the pandemic, and it is tremendously important during this time to highlight entrepreneurship and to support small businesses in our local communities. Jon G and Kelly, I hope your hard work will continue to pay off and that your barbecue restaurant will be a Peachland institution for years to come.

Mr. BERGMAN. Madam Speaker, it is my honor to recognize the 20th Anniversary of the HOPE Animal Assisted Crisis Response. Through their dedicated service and steadfast devotion to their communities, HOPE AACR has become an indispensable part of Michigan's First District and the United States.

While the roles they play may differ, CBP personnel are tasked with keeping our country a safe, secure, and resilient place where the American way of life can thrive.

In carrying out this critical role, CBP personnel provide a great service to our country. They put their uniforms on every day and kiss their families goodbye, not sure what the next shift may bring. Tragically, some have not returned home.

I wish to pay tribute to the brave officers and agents who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our Nation. We commemorate them, celebrate their lives, and offer their families and loved ones our continued support. HONORING DR. GARY AND KAROLYN CHAPMAN

HON. TED BUDD

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BUDD. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Dr. Gary and Karolyn Chapman as they celebrate 50 years of ministry at Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC.

When Gary and Karolyn Chapman began their ministry at Calvary in 1971 at the invitation of Dr. Mark Corts, they didn't land immediately within the business of strengthening marriages. It was only after the Chapmans had been faithfully leading the college and single adult ministries of the church that God opened a door for them to reach those encountering relational difficulties, primarily focusing on married couples and families.

Karolyn has long been involved in encouraging other pastors' wives, a hugely important work to minister to the behind-the-scenes supporters that she's uniquely suited to care for. In addition to this, Calvary and all its members have been blessed through Karolyn's beautiful voice and her devotion to the church's choir ministry.

Millions of relationships have experienced healing and restoration through Gary's work as a pastor, marriage counselor, and author of over fifty books including his best-selling The Five Love Languages, which has sold over 20 million copies and been translated into more than 50 different languages. While Gary formally retired from his position as Senior Associate Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church at the end of July, he continues to write and teach, and neither he nor Karolyn have any plans of retiring from ministry altogether.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating Gary and Karolyn on a half-century of faithful service invested in sharing Christ's love with the world. Their example has been an inspiration to me, my family, and to so many. May we all continue to grow closer to Christ as we follow their example.

HONORING MR. ARTHUR M. NEWELL

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Arthur M. Newell, of Struthers, Ohio, on the awarding to him of the French Legion d'honneur.

The government of the French Republic, since the end of the Second World War, honors those liberators, who restored those liberties with determination, sacrifice, duty, and honor, with the presentation of the Ordre national de la Légion d'honneur.

Conceived over two centuries ago by Napoléon Bonaparte, First Consul of the First Republic of France, his Order was devised to reward eminent military and civil merits in the service of France. The award is still the highest distinction that can be bestowed upon a citizen of France or a foreigner who has done great deeds for France.

Of his service, then Private First Class Newell recalls, "After arriving in Metz, France, our regiment joined others from Patton's 3rd Army in an attempt to breach the Siegfried Line. Just to the east of Metz, we approached our first enemy pillbox. It appeared to be out of action until we were within about 100 feet from it. At that moment the Germans opened fire. A few of our men got hit and a few more stepped on mines or set off booby traps. We took cover. Our heavy weapons platoon came up to the front and with their machine guns and bazookas they took direct aim at the bunkers slotted openings and opened fire. As the battle progressed my buddies and I got close enough to lob grenades towards the fortification. The enemy within the pillbox fell silent."

There is no doubt that Mr. Newell is a true American hero, emblematic of the service that characterizes the Veterans of Ohio's 13th Congressional District, the state of Ohio, and the United States of America.

I want to personally congratulate Arthur on this milestone and offer my sincerest gratitude for his unwavering dedication to our country. It is members of his generation upon which our nation is built.

COMMEMORATING NATIONAL POLICE WEEKEND

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, as a member of the Law Enforcement Caucus and a senior member of the Committees on Judiciary and Homeland Security, and the Chair of the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, I rise to commemorate National Police Weekend, which runs from today, Friday, October 15, through Sunday, October 17, 2021.

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial is the nation's monument to law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.

Dedicated on October 15, 1991, the Memorial honors federal, state and local law enforcement officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the safety and protection of our nation and its people.

Carved on its walls are the names of 22,611 officers who have been killed in the line of duty throughout U.S. history, dating back to the first known death in 1791.

Added to the Wall this year will be the names of the 295 police officers who lost their lives in the line of duty in 2020 and an additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose stories of sacrifice had been lost to history until now.

Also to be added are the names of 182 officers who were lost to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020.

Madam Speaker, enshrined on the Memorial Wall of Honor also are the names of 1,831 fallen peace officers from the state of Texas, the most of any state, including 115 members of the Houston Police Department who gave their lives to keep their city safe.

To this Roll of Honor will be added the following heroes from Texas:

Caleb Daniel Rule, End of Watch: May 29, 2020, Fort Bend County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 4

Mark Christopher Brown, End of Watch: July 26, 2020, Harris County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 5

Christopher Charles Lewis Brewster, End of Watch: December 7, 2019, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Harold Lloyd Preston, End of Watch: October 20, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Jason Michael Knox, End of Watch: May 2, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Madam Speaker, today there are more than 800,000 law enforcement personnel serving the people of our country, the highest amount ever.

About 12 percent of them are female.

These brave men and women risk their lives to keep the peace and keep us safe, but they are too often taken by the violence they are working to prevent.

Every year, a law enforcement officer is killed somewhere in the United States every 55 hours, and there are also 58,170 assaults against our law officers each year, resulting in 17,560 injuries.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to represent the people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas in paying tribute to the 394 fallen heroes who will be joining the 22,611 gallant men and women who gave the last full measure of devotion to the communities they took an oath to protect and serve.

Madam Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of the 295 officers who died in the line of duty in 2020 and the additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose story had been lost to history, the names of all of whom will be added to the National Peace Officers Memorial Wall of Honor.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE ALEXIS COMPANY

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize an African American-owned small business, the Alexis Company, based in Detroit in Michigan's 13th Congressional District, as they celebrate their thirty-fifth anniversary.

The Alexis Company is the culmination of the hard work of its founder Regina Dubose. Born and raised in Detroit, Ms. Dubose dreamed of one day running her own business when she was a child. She credits her financial and business acumen to the mentorship she received in one of her earliest jobs working at a local accounting firm. Ms. Dubose was drawn to a career in psychology and counseling after earning her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Wayne State University, but she found herself drawn to entrepreneurship when she began working as a vendor at concerts and events in the mid-1980s.

By 1986, Ms. Dubose was able to open the Alexis Company. Over the years, she has grown the business with expanded product lines and by engaging with local events and organizations. The early initial successes solidified the Alexis Company's reputation as a reliable partner in community events. Ms. Dubose was able to leverage this work into a distributorship for the company, which increased their access to promotional products and broadened their competitive edge in new markets at the local, state, national, and international levels.

Under Ms. Dubose's leadership, the Alexis Company has adapted to the changing demands of the business. Most recently, she has shifted her focus to sharing her knowledge by writing and publishing a book about her experiences. Ms. Dubose and the Alexis Company reflect the grit and adaptability needed to succeed as an entrepreneur. Small businesses are the backbone of local economies, and it is especially meaningful when minority-owned businesses succeed and thrive.

Please join me in recognizing Regina Dubose and the Alexis Company as they celebrate thirty-five years in business as we wish them well in the years to come.

HONORING ISABEL MARTINEZ SANTOS AS IOWAN OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Isabel Martinez Santos as Iowan of the Week. Isabel immigrated to the United States and has lived in Iowa for 28 years. Isabel has become a staple of advocacy within her community. Isabel has committed herself to addressing the conflict that exists in our world through her position with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence and with Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras, a community-focused dance group she founded.

Isabel started her very accomplished career as a member of a community group that worked directly with women who faced violence in different aspects of their lives. Through this, and the values that were instilled in her from her parents, Isabel began to amplify the voices of those in need. This year, Isabel was promoted as the co-director of Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's Legal Clinic as the Bi-Lingual DOJ Accredited Representative. She provides legal services, consultations, resources, and support to survivors of partner violence. She also offers technical assistance, mentorship to Spanish-speaking bi-cultural advocates, and training. Her commitment to advocacy on behalf of survivors is evident in her extensive track record of 22 years in the victim services field.

In addition to her role with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Isabel found another way to give back to her community. Isabel founded Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras almost six years ago hoping to create a place for self-care for other advocates. Since its opening, Isabel has welcomed a broader spectrum of members of her community to highlight individual cultures, have fun, and overcome the barriers of trauma. Through her group, Isabel strives to provide change that will last for generations.

Not only has Isabel been an incredible advocate for the women of Iowa, but Isabel is also the 2021 recipient of the Diane Reese Excellence in Advocacy in the Movement (DREAM) Award from the National Network to end Domestic Violence. This national award is granted to individuals who incorporate and demonstrate the spirit and promise of true advocacy in all aspects of their life—one who emulates Ms. Reese's commitment to clear and ethical communication, her eagerness to collaborate in the spirit of true partnership, and her deep respect for the dignity, worth and humanity in each one of us.

Isabel hopes to be a role model and leave a legacy for her three children, her community, and immigrant women around the world by continuing to actively work to end the violence that exists in our world. It is my pleasure to name Isabel Martinez Santos Iowan of the Week.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. GREGORY F. MURPHY

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. MURPHY of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, unfortunately, I was unable to be physically present for the following vote series that took place on October 12, 2021. Had I been present, I would have voted NAY on Roll Call No. 315.

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL CHAMBER DISTINGUISHED YOUNG WOMAN AWARD RECIPIENT DEIDRE CROCKETT

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Deidre Crockett, volunteer at Beaumont Health as she is awarded the Distinguished Young Woman Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our community are worthy of commendation.

Ms. Crockett attended high school in Taylor, Michigan. She is currently studying Biomedical Physics at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan as Wayne Med-Direct scholar. The competitive Wayne Med-Direct program aims to educate students about urban health disparities and help future physicians lead the way in improving the health and wellness of urban and underserved communities. In the future, Ms. Crockett wants to become a geneticist specializing in treating sickle cell disease and offer low-cost treatments to families in need. As a volunteer at Beaumont Hospital in Taylor she has given over 180 hours of services to staff and patients in the surgical lounge, radiology, wound care, welcome desk, and bariatric surgery areas.

Her colleagues at Beaumont describe her as kind, compassionate, smart, and hard-working—truly a distinguished young woman. They have no doubt that she will make an immense difference in the lives of her future patients. Even as a busy student, in her spare time she is active in her church, helps children learn to play soccer, and volunteers at a local food distribution center. It is safe to say that Ms. Crockett has a bright future ahead of her and we will all benefit from her drive and passion for helping others.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Deidre Crockett and in congratulating her for being the recipient of the Distinguished Young Woman Award. We are grateful for her exemplary service to our community in Wayne County and beyond. We join with Deidre's friends, family, and colleagues in thanking her for her hard work and dedication to her field and wish her the best in the future.

CONGRATULATING RABBI MICAH GREENSTEIN

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. COHEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Rabbi Micah Greenstein of Temple Israel in Memphis for his 30 years leading the historic, 167-year-old congregation.

Rabbi Greenstein is the most recent in a long line of rabbis leading a congregation whose history is entwined with the history of the city of Memphis, from the Civil War and yellow fever epidemic, through both World Wars and the Civil Rights movement.

One of Rabbi Greenstein's predecessors, Rabbi James Wax, led the Memphis Ministerial Association during the Memphis Sanitation Workers strike and the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in 1968.

Rabbi Greenstein has been instrumental in working with the Memphis Interfaith Coalition for Action and Hope (MICAHA), his namesake, a group dedicated to dealing with social issues and economic and educational disparities in our community. Rabbi Greenstein returned Temple Israel to Midtown Memphis when he dedicated Temple Israel Crosstown, an auxiliary branch in Crosstown Center, an important move for Judaism in Memphis.

Rabbi Greenstein is a great orator and the congregation looks forward to hearing his High Holy Days remarks each year. He is also the Jerry West of rabbis for his ability to select phenomenal cantors and associate rabbis to complement his talents and present an All Star team at Temple Israel, from Rabbi Katie Bauman to Rabbi Bess Wohlner to cantorial soloist Happie Hoffman and many others, including a husband-wife team.

Rabbi Greenstein has brought together Memphis religious leaders addressing Memphis' crime problems and helped calm anxieties after the September 11 terrorist attacks by linking arms with Muslim and Christian leaders. I commend Rabbi Greenstein—my rabbi—for his 30 years of service in Memphis and wish him many more productive years in our community.

RECOGNIZING MR. PATRICK B. LOFTUS ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. MIKE QUIGLEY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. QUIGLEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to join TTX Company CEO, Tom Wells, and his colleagues in honoring Mr. Patrick B. Loftus. Pat recently retired from his position as the company's Senior Vice President, Law and Administration.

Pat's retirement marks the end of a distinguished career as a leader in his company and in the railroad industry, including years as a spokesman and strategist for TTX and the industry here in Washington.

Pat has been with TTX for 35 years, beginning as a litigator when the company was known as Trailer Train, rising to General Counsel in 2001, Corporate Secretary a year later, and assuming his most recent wide-ranging responsibilities as Senior Vice President in 2013.

Pat was a leader in legislative fights for fair competition in surface transportation and spearheaded the company's successful relationship with its regulator, the Surface Transportation Board.

Pat's many friends on Capitol Hill, in the rail industry, and in his company will miss his insight, skills as an advocate, and trademark good humor. We wish Pat all the best.

Madam Speaker, please join me and all our colleagues in the House of Representatives in recognizing Mr. Loftus' years of service and congratulating him on his retirement.

HONORING DON REID

HON. DAN BISHOP

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BISHOP of North Carolina. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor my good friend Don Reid and to wish him a very happy 90th birthday. Don, a stalwart conservative, served on the Charlotte City Council from 1991 to 1999. There, he established a reputation as a zealous defender of the taxpayer—demanding accountability, asking tough questions, and standing against imprudent and ill-advised big spending projects, even if that meant standing alone. Among those big spending projects: a proposed taxpayer-funded NBA stadium and an expensive light rail system.

Twenty years off the Council, the passage of time has proven Don right again and again. In addition to his service on the Council, Don helped found the watchdog group Citizens for Effective Government and hosted weekly breakfast meetings in Charlotte that were must-attend events for those interested in local politics. Don, you continue to be an important voice on behalf of fiscal responsibility, and Charlotte is grateful for your service. Happy birthday.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF SERGEANT KAILA SULLIVAN

HON. BRIAN BABIN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BABIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and sacrifice of Sergeant Kaila Sullivan, a 16-year veteran of the Nassau Bay Police Department.

On December 10, 2019, Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was killed in the line of duty while assisting an arrest in the Clear Lake area. Her tragic death is a grim reminder that the job of a police officer protecting our streets can be dangerous and deadly, even on the most routine of days, and that our law enforcement officers deserve our gratitude and respect.

Her friends and colleagues remember Kaila as the "rock" of her police force, a hero, and a "peace officer's peace officer." She was an enthusiastic advocate for victims of domestic violence and a natural leader revered by her community. She always strived to excel at her job as a police officer, and her long list of roles within the force reflects that; Sullivan served as a bike patrol instructor, a mental health officer, a field training officer, crime prevention specialist, and Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) instructor in addition to her duties as Sergeant.

But Kaila was not just a police officer. She was a devoted mother and loving wife, a friend to all, and quite the entertainer with "the voice of an angel." She enjoyed playing the guitar, riding horses, and was often seen around town in her overhauled, monster truck-like pickup. She loved hiking, being outdoors, and spending time with her family, but most of all, people remember her being totally dedicated to the community she served.

Sergeant Kaila Sullivan was Nassau Bay Police Department's first death in the line of duty. Her loss continues to reverberate in the Nassau Bay community, as it will for many years.

Madam Speaker, I would like to honor Sergeant Kaila Sullivan and her family for her service. God bless Texas, Nassau Bay, and Sergeant Kaila Sullivan.

RECOGNIZING CARLI LLOYD

HON. ANDY KIM

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. KIM of New Jersey. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Carli Lloyd on her retirement from a sixteen-year international career in professional soccer as a member of the United States Women's National Team.

Carli grew up in Delran, New Jersey, and while she participated in numerous sports, she always gravitated towards soccer. She began playing at 5 years old and quickly excelled as a youth player. Later she even recalled some of her fondest memories were when she played on the Medford Strikers. From the moment she returned home from school, Carli could be found on any patch of grass big enough to kick a ball. Whether she was playing against men in pickup games or with younger siblings in her family's upstairs hallway, Carli's competitive nature and ambition to be the best player on the field was always on display.

After playing on Rutgers University's team, Carli's removal from the Under 21 Women's National Soccer Team forced her to re-examine her approach to achieving her ultimate dream of being on the Women's National Team. As we all know, for Carli simply being on the team wasn't enough. She has gone on to compete in 312 international games, the second highest tally in U.S. soccer history.

She played in 25 World Cup matches and 22 Olympic matches. She is the highest scoring midfielder in U.S. history and just a few months ago scored after playing for just 23 seconds, the second fastest goal scorer at the start of a match in Women's National Team History. A team general manager described Carli as, "the embodiment of the DNA of a U.S. Women's National Team player."

For those of us watching in stadiums or on television, we only see a fraction of what is truly required to compete at the highest level—the hard work, perseverance, self-taught-confidence that each player must have. While Carli leaves behind a legendary record, truly a legacy, her adherence to self-improvement and love for the sport is perhaps what she will forever be remembered.

Madam Speaker, Carli is an inspiration to all of us in New Jersey, particularly our daughters, and represents the best of us. Her integrity, humility and dedication to her teammates inspires us to become the best version of ourselves, and I wish her the best of luck in the next chapter of her life.
